Poem #1

Some think of drinks or cold ice cream,
Some think of times, or friends unseen.

You'll find the clues most everywhere,
So here is one for you to share.

The spirits here all feel the same,
If you guess wrong, you're not to blame.

This shall be enough for you to give success,
So now let's hear your awesome guess.

Poem #2

To point the way where you like best,
We could look, both East and West.

But don't forget as you go forth,
Some look South, but most look North.

A Mill you'll find that lacks fresh water,
No grain to grind, no miller's daughter.

But if you feel both light and green,
You'll know for sure just what we mean.

Poem #3

If you like a certain fella,
And you feel like Cinderella,

Could you find an iron carriage,
Where a prince could offer marriage?

Think about a castle East,
Where Kids often go, to share a feast.

Don't try to go in Winter's snow,
But in Summertime, young hearts will glow
